BY MAX GOODWIN

The way things are shaping up, it is probable that an election on incorporation will be called early in October.

According to the proponents of the venture, the election on incorporation will be a joint one with electing persons who will serve as the first city council, should the issue pass.

It is the feeling of this publication that anyone who has firm convictions on the way a city of some 25,000 should be run should make himself eligible by filing for the election race.

While it is true the job will pay nothing, there are rewarding areas involved whereby the first councilmen, or councilwomen, may point back in the years to come and give credit to themselves for having breathed life into a fledgling city.

So far no one has officially announced his candidacy. We hope there will be 20 or 25 running for the five positions to be filled. It is surprisingly easy to get into the race. An uncomplicated petition must be circulated and carry the names of at least five persons as sponsors. The petition forms will be available at this publication's office at 7834 Lester avenue if and when the supervisors approve the election. This date possibly will be set at the public incorporation hearing late in August.

Any registered voter may run for a councilman's seat. Some who will not make themselves available for the race are the chairmen of the incorporation committee and persons connected with this newspaper.

If you are sincerely interested and cannot run for any reason, encourage a neighbor whom you feel might make good governmental timber.

Recently a suit was lodged against the local water works by the Neilsen family after Mrs. Neilsen had allegedly suffered damages to her singing voice because of the dust resulting from sandblasting operations on a water tank adjacent to their home on Costa Bella street. We've had our eyes working on this case and they report it wasn't the dust . . . it was the water. We took the trouble to ask a couple of employees of the water works which they thought would wreck vocal cords quicker, dust or water.

Pony All-Stars Nip Ocean Beach, Enter Regionals

Ninth inning home runs by Barry Hudson and Larry Edwards gave the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley Pony All-Stars a 3-1 victory over the Ocean Beach All-Stars this week and moved them into the regional playoffs which open Saturday at Helix Field, La Mesa.

The win gave the locals the San Diego district championship. They will represent the San Diego area in the regional August 9-11, against teams from California and other western states and Hawaii.

The All-Stars, composed of players from Pony League teams in the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley area, were awarded trophies and regional pins after the game and received the "San Diego" uniforms they will wear in the playoffs.

The squad will attend the Annual Pony League banquet tomorrow night at 7:30 p.m. at the Lafayette Hotel. Joe E. Brown, noted comedian and Pony League president, will be the guest of honor. Tickets are $3.50 and the public is invited.

In the championship game, Ocean Beach took a one-run lead in the first inning but the All-Stars tied it up 1-1 in the sixth when Ronnie Cady scored on Red Westcott's single.

Deadlocked in the seventh, the game went into extra innings until the homers by Hudson and Edwards broke it up in the top of the ninth. Ron Scagliotti was the winning pitcher, allowing only five hits.

Banquet tickets and "season" playoff tickets can be obtained from Mrs. Margaret Westcott at HO 97218 or Mrs. Marie Hodgson at HO 98132. Tickets for the 19-30 game playoffs are $3 or two for $5. Admission for individual games will be 50 cents.

SANITATION TAX CUT

MORE HOMES—The precursor of many more homes to come is started at the former La Presa airport in ground-breaking ceremonies. Walter Bollenbacher, Raymond Swaner and Fred Hanson, developers all, chat as the three million dollar project gets under way. Hanson is director of the adjacent La Presa water district.

SV Estates Homes Underway At La Presa

One of the largest land sales in recent years was finalized last week in the San Diego county recorder's office with the filing of two trust deeds of about $3 million.

Roger N. Howe, county recorder, said the purchasers, Walter Bollenbacher and Louis L. Kelton, were presented at the filing by Raymond Swaner, San Diego manager for the sub-dividers and Ernest J. Billman, vice president of the Security Title and Insurance company. Bollenbacher and Kelton are developers of Allied Gardens.

The area in question is approximately 600 acres in the Sweetwater valley, including the former La Presa airport, which is a portion of the old Spanish land grant, known as Jamacha Rancho, according to Billman.

Swaner said his company has overall plans for the building of 2,500 homes in this area but that the deeds recorded now are for the immediate construction of 241 Allied Gardens type homes, which will be known as the Spring Valley Estates.

Four of the Spring Valley Estate homes are now under construction and as soon as they are completed, will be used as models for the tract.

Jaycees To Make Aviation Award

Entries have been opened for the annual aviation achievement award, given annually to the person in San Diego who has made the greatest contribution to the field of aviation. Nominations are being solicited from all San Diego firms engaged in aviation or related fields, announced Roger Turnpugh, chairman for the sponsoring San Diego Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The aviation achievement award program is designed to honor the man in the local aviation industry who has made an outstanding contribution to the advancement of aviation. This year the fields of missiles and avionics are included in the scope of the award.

Nominations must be submitted to the Junior Chamber of Commerce, 947 Columbia. Judging will be conducted by a panel of three judges who are actively engaged in aviation.

Presentation of the 1958 award will be made at the Junior Chamber aviation achievement award banquet, August 21, to be held at the Kona Kai club.

The 1957 winner was Bruce Smith, vice president, engineering and military relations, Ryan Aeronautical Company, who was honored for his leading role in the research, design and development of the X-13, the vertijet.

SAN DIEGO (CNS)—The tax rates in the Lemon Grove and Spring Valley Sanitation districts will be sharply lower for the 1958-59 fiscal year, Supervisor David W. Bird said Monday.

A rate of 13 cents per $100 of assessed valuation is likely for the Spring Valley district, compared with 70 cents in the preceding year, Bird said. The Spring Valley rate is to be 50 cents against 70 cents in the year ending last June 30, he said.

These rates, according to Bird, will be recommended by the Department of Public Works, which operates the two districts. He said the only factor still to be determined is the assessed valuation to be put on public utilities' holdings in the districts by the State Board of Equalization. This information is to be announced in Sacramento August 26.

Bird said the lower tax rates in both districts would be due to increased property values in the two areas and to a boost in revenues from sewer connections.

Road Rename Asked By Alpine Editor

ALPINE — Newspaper Editor Clarke Irvine has begun a move here to change the name of Highway 80 through Alpine to Alpine boulevard.

Irvine last week began a search for persons to help circulate petitions asking County Supervisors to approve the name change.

Irvine proposes to have Highway 80 called Alpine boulevard from Pepper drive in El Cajon, east to the Willows.

Irvine said Supervisor Dave Bird, of this district, and Jacob Dekema, resident engineer for the State Highway department, both favor the plan.

SPINACH NOT SO HOT AFTER ALL; CHILDREN TOLD TO EAT SQUASH

Well, little chums, here's the news you've been waiting for. Just show this to your Mom and you're off the age-old, eat-it-or-leave-it-home, you'll-get-muscles type of diet.

The San Diego county Tuberculosis and Health association reports a warning to Popeye which reads:

"Dear Popeye, Before the word gets around to your enemies, we want to warn you spinach is not the best source of iron to make you strong. Next time you're in a tight spot, try potatoes, squash or carrots.

One of our earliest memories is the sound of Mother's voice saying, Eat your spinach, dear. It's full of iron. It tasted like iron, too, — gritty iron fillings. We resisted valiantly, until we saw our first Popeye cartoon. The miracles performed by our hero convinced us. We ate our spinach.

And now science tells us spinach is no better a source of iron than many other foods. The disillusion is almost more than we can bear. By now we've learned to like the stuff. When properly cleaned, cooked, and dressed up with cheese sauce, it's a very tasty dish.

If that horrid Bluto had only known! While Popeye was consuming a can of spinach, he could have eaten a bunch of carrots, a helping of squash or a pile of mashed potatoes. He would have been able to outpoint Popeye—at least in iron . . .

But why continue. Show this to Mom. It really won't do any good though. They don't really believe anything in regard to spinach . . . except that it is . . . contrary to such reports as this—good for you.

Youth Caught In Race With Cops

Two Spring Valley boys, 14 and 15, were sent to juvenile hall after the 14-year-old was arrested by a San Diego policeman, early Sunday morning driving a stolen car. The 15-year-old, a passenger in the car, did not know it was stolen according to the 14-year-old boy.

San Diego patrolman R. S. Welter, reported he chased the car eight blocks before it stopped. He said he saw the car pass a red traffic light at Fifth and Laurel streets and it also ran two stop signs before stopping.

The 14-year-old driver was a student at Mt. Miguel high school last semester. According to a report, he had a record of burglary in 1954 and was made a ward of the court and placed in custody of the California youth authority for that offense.

Group Protests Court Change

The Board of Supervisors Tuesday filed without comment a letter from the San Diego Taxpayers Association criticizing establishment of a second municipal court in the El Cajon Judicial District.

The association urged that additional boundary changes await results of a forthcoming court survey by the State Judicial Council, which has recommended one district for all of San Diego County.

The supervisors realigned the districts in July leaving three San Diego precincts jutting like a finger into Lemon Grove to accommodate Judge Luther Hussey, Municipal court judge who lives in Lemon Grove on San Miguel avenue. Hussey had protested the realignment.

Incorporation Hearing Date Approved

SAN DIEGO (CNS) — Supervisors Tuesday reaffirmed their decision to hold a public hearing at 2 p.m. on Aug. 26 on petitions for the incorporation of Lemon Grove.

The also set for this same time a hearing on the request of Charles A. Willis to include additional land within the boundaries of the proposed City of Lemon Grove. Willis is asking that all of an area at MacArthur and Federal boulevards be in the area seeking incorporation.

Mrs. Orville Smith, 1745 Englewood drive, and her children Lorraine and Gary, and Mrs. Robert Jones, 1919 El Dorado, and her two daughters Juanita and Mary, sailed last week from Long Beach aboard the S.S. Oransea.

The women saved for two years to make the trip and plan to stay six months. The husbands, naturally, are hotting it. Both women are war brides, having met their spouses when they were serving in Australia.

The League meets at Michael's Thursday at 7:30 p.m.

Board Sees School Tax Up 24c, Eyes 'Override'

The Lemon Grove school board approved a revised budget of $1,277,957 Monday night. This will represent an estimated increase of 24 cents in the school tax rate based on present studies of assessed valuation. It was $1.90 last year.

Nine hundred thousand dollars worth of insurance was issued to John Dail, broker of record. He will share the insurance with Jack Durham agency and Lemon Grove Insurance Agency.

San Miguel students will be on double sessions in all grades the first month of school this year, Byron Netzel, school superintendent said. They will share their classrooms with San Alitos students to be.

Request to withdraw protest on beer and wine off-sale license on a supermarket was deferred until the next meeting.

The board agreed to decide at the next meeting on an "override" election. Tentative date would be October 7. Present override of 50 cents was voted eight years ago bringing the cost of school operation from the legal maximum limit of 90 cents to $1.40. Decision whether to keep the election to 50 cents and also for spreading it to ten years will also be made at the September meeting.

Leave Zoning As Is, Protestants Demand

SAN DIEGO (CNS)—The hearing on new zoning for the Lemon Grove business area was closed by Supervisors on Tuesday, with a final decision to be made later.

The Board, for the second time, heard protests by property owners against the zoning plan submitted by the Planning Commission. At the original hearing, held this spring, Supervisors requested that the planning body review the protests against the first plan.

Dr. Willis H. Miller, director of county planning, explained to Supervisors Tuesday that the Planning Commission on July 25 had considered the protests and changed their zoning recommendation to suit those of the complaints.

Property owners whose protests had not been acted upon were then heard by Supervisors. Most of those objecting asked that they be given the same kind of zoning they now have, with the changes proposed by the Planning Commission not adopted.

Among those appearing before the Supervisors was only one person approving the plan, "By and large," he said, "I favor Dr. Miller's plan. It avoids the mistake made in El Cajon, which has become a shoe string town."

The speaker, who said he was an El Cajon real estate man, but left before his name could be obtained, said El Cajon had grown up along one street and now planning was trying to correct this mistake.

Among those speaking against the zone plan were the following: Joseph Cannizzaro and his father, B. B. Margolis, Raymond Carmody, Mrs. Stanley Purczynski, I. H. Webber, Pearl Truett, Nola B. Anderson, John Kniff.

HS, JC Tax May Get 22c Boost

An estimated increase of 17 cents in the high school tax rate was rucked up Monday night when the Grossmont high school board approved at budget of $5,181,506. Of this total $3,886,964 will finance the current expense for 8100 high school students in the regular four-year high school, 5000 in summer school and 5000 in adult school enrollment. Cost per high school student is estimated at $400 which will be approximately $20 more than last year. Grossmont costs in 1956-57 were $73 below the state average and similar continuing advantage in lower comparative costs is anticipated. Salaries account for over 80 per cent of the current expenditure budget.

District officials said it is probable that the junior college rate will be increased "eight or ten cents." This would bring the total high school tax to an estimated $1.94. Last year the total rate was $1.72 for an increase of 22 cents.

The board also approved 5% increases to all teachers, administrators and school employees. An 8 per cent increase had been requested by the Grossmont Teachers' Association.

The new salary schedule, termed on the best in San Diego county, ranges from $4800 for a four year bachelor's degree with a special or provisional credential to $8400 for 6 years of professional study after thirteen years of service. Approximately 10 per cent of a teacher's salary is withheld to the State Teachers' Retirement Plan.

COLOR CONSCIOUS CORA
Cora's been coming into my shop for years. She's a real photography fan, a good customer. Makes home movies, develops her own snap shots — all that sort of thing.

She brought up a very interesting point several months ago — one I'd never even thought about. She told me, "Camera companies have completely overlooked a strong selling point for giving cameras 'What is that?' I asked in surprise. 'Color!' she said. 'Cameras make wonderful gifts. They're practical, fun to own, styled beautifully but they lack the personal touch of a distinctive color. You know, like white for a wedding, blue for a new baby in the family, red for a teenager.'"

I had to admit she had something there. But I couldn't do anything about it. Now it's different. When Cora came in recently I showed her the new Brownie Starflash Outfits that come with the camera in your choice of four attractive colors: Coral Red, Stardust White, Skyline Blue, and Black.

"Why, aren't they wonderful," she said. "My niece has a birthday coming up. I'll take this red one." She walked out, contented as a kitten.

Won't you come in and see the new Brownie Starflash Cameras in color? Complete picture-taking outfits are priced at just $9.95.

'Small Planet' Featured Next At Playhouse

La Jolla Playhouse moves from fierce melodrama to delightfully whimsical comedy when it presents Gore Vidal's "A Visit to a Small Planet" starring Reginald Gardiner. Alan Reed, and Les Tremayne, opening Monday night for a two-week run.

The comedy follows Arthur Miller's thrilling "A View From the Bridge" which is currently evoking the most universal praise. A Playhouse production has received as a "powerful drama beautifully presented by an excellent cast." It will have its last performance Saturday night.

"A visit to a Small Planet" was first presented as a television Philco play three years ago on the Philco Hour. It proved to be one of the most talked about TV comedies of the season and Vidal immediately adapted it for the stage, opening it on Broadway a year ago. Both from a financial point of view and audience enjoyment, it has become this season's most popular comedy from coast to coast.

Reginald Gardiner, here last summer in "The Reluctant Debutante," plays the role of the curious "visitor." He has recently been playing the same part in various eastern summer theatres. Alan Reed, long a favorite of radio listeners, TV viewers, and film, will be "General Powers," the character he created in this original TV production.

Direction is by Alan Cooke, with a fantastic set designed by Zvi Geyra and lighting by Bary McGee.

The entire show will be under the direction of Stan Rose, physical education instructor at Spring Valley junior high school. He is also director of activities for the Carman ranch club.

The show will be open to the public. Donations from the show will go toward advancement of competitive swimming and diving in this area.

Little League NOTES...

The Spring Valley Lions of the Capitan de Oro Little League won the 1958 season, defeating the Rams by a score of 8 to 7, on July 25. Pitching the most shut-out was David Gibson, who has pitched great ball through out the season as well as during the 1957 season.

Other highlights of that game were two base hits by Conaway and Smith of the Lions and a hot catch by Dick Golden along the first base line.

The Rams were winners of the first half of this season, and the Lions the winners of the second half, thus the playoff.

However, the all-stars of the minors beat the Lions in a game July 27, by a score of 8 to 7, with Temple of the Cardinals as the winning pitcher.

Closing ceremonies for the Capitan de Oro little league was held at Foster field with several awards being made. Burt Easton, manager of the Elks, winners of the 1957 season, presented Dick Golden, manager of the Elks, this year's winners, with the perpetual club trophy. Pat Conaway of the Elks was given the sportsmanship award for the majors and Charles Cobb was given the same for the minors.

WELL, A COOKED GOOSE CAN'T LAY!

Sidewalks, Drains Set for Casa de Oro

This week Casa de Oro took the first step toward growing into a full fledged town when the Casa de Oro chamber of commerce presented Dave Bird, County Supervisor for that district, with signed petitions requesting the construction of sidewalks, curbs and drainage for the entire business section.

Supervisor Bird accepted the petitions July 30, at the Casa de Oro chamber of commerce office, 9802 Campo road. The petitions will be turned over to the County Road Department this week for signature verification. Acceptance of the petitions will be followed by a preliminary survey, plus several hearings, which together with the time needed to make the installations will take about two years and result in a fine new shopping district to serve the entire area east of Lemon Grove.

Business men in Casa de Oro began thinking in terms of city improvements several months ago when the County Planning Commission approved commercial zoning for approximately fifty acres along Campo road, extending east and west from the present business section.

In March the business men got together to form a chamber of commerce and in May, "Bo" Justice, president, designated five working committees, including a Civic improvement committee, made a survey to determine if the majority of property owners were interested in supporting the proposed improvement.

Finding that a sufficient number indicated an eagerness to support the project, the committee spearheaded circulation of the 1911 Improvement Act. When the petitions were turned in Wednesday, committee chairman Gilbert Ray said:

"We estimate that the signatures obtained represent between seventy and eighty percent of the ownership by area. This is a figure well above the sixty per cent required to initiate action."

Civic Improvement committee members other than the chairman include: Bob Stuard, Gene Genson, Sidney Kent and Mary Jeffers. Assisting them in circulating the petitions were: Ralph McJunkin, Jim Raas, and Nina Ray.

The petitions request the county to install curbs and sidewalks together with the necessary drainage under the 1911 Improvement Act. Basically this means that the work will be paid for by the owners of the improved property on a bond issue with payments extended over a ten-year period.

The area where the improvements will be made includes the commercial strip on Campo road from the fire station to the Growler cafe, plus 240 feet north and south on the following cross streets: Kenora drive, Conrad drive, Bonita street, Barcelona Cordoba avenue, Granada avenue and Casa de Oro boulevard.

Drinkers Top Hiway Plague Says CHP

SACRAMENTO (Spel)—Drivers under the influence of alcohol continue to present a problem on our highways says the California Highway Patrol.

"During the first five months of this year, drivers who had been drinking were involved in an average of one accident every 30 minutes on the rural highways of California," declared Patrol Commissioner B. R. Caldwell. "This includes those who were obviously drunk, those under the influence, and those who had been drinking although the degree of impairment was not known."

"Although a small reduction in accidents involving drinking drivers has been experienced thus far during 1958, the driver who drinks is too frequently involved in fatal and injury accidents which is a major concern to enforcement personnel," Caldwell stated. "In the enforcement field, the Patrol made 5,150 arrests for drunk driving during the first five months, an increase of 30, or 0.6 per cent compared to 1957."

"Frequently drivers take the wheel of a motor vehicle after a few drinks thinking they are capable of meeting any emergency. Investigation proves, however, that much of the driving while under the influence of alcohol can be attributed to a lack of realization of the hazards involved with such actions," he continued.

"When a situation arises calling for fast, accurate judgement and action to avoid an accident, the driver who has been drinking finds his reaction slowed to the point where he may be in trouble." The commissioner concluded. "The best and safest policy is to refrain from driving if you have been drinking."

★ After leaving a freeway, be sure to adjust your speed downward for other types of road, counsels the automobile club of Southern California.

Movie Tour To Be Men's Club Program

The Men's club was treated to a program of hypnotism Friday by Dr. Neill Barton, L.G. chiropractor. Two local men, Charles Davis and Dale Plumb were put into a trance and performed under the direction of Dr. Barton. Davis responded by being incapable of moving his muscles on suggestion of the hypnotist. Plumb entered a period of "regression" dating more than a hundred years before.

This week, Charles A. Dickenson, a Grossmont businessman will show a personalized film tour of a trip he took earlier through Europe.

The club meets each Friday at noon at Michael's. Any man may attend.

Tensiometer Use In Avocados Reported By Farm Advisor

Irrigation is the most important cultural operation in the growing of avocados, according to University of California Farm Advisor Don Gustafson. Tensiometers (soil moisture measuring instruments) are being used by avocado growers in the Valley area in increasing numbers as a guide in determination of an irrigation schedule.

Results of the past years' field tests in San Diego county orchards indicate that careful attention must be given to these instruments. For best performance and use, the following factors must be considered: (1) proper installation, insuring a good contact between soil and ceramic cup when placed into the ground is very important. (2) each instrument should be placed near the drip-line of the tree where there is good soil activity. (3) each instrument should be able to "see" the sprinkler. (4) all obstacles, like low hanging branches, etc. must be removed. (5) take instrument readings frequently, daily if possible, and between 6 and 9 a.m. (6) plot the readings, and (7) study the changes which occur.

The most important finding in the use of these tensiometers is that irrigations should be scheduled on the rate of change of the readings and not on a specific number on the meter. The 12 inch instrument is the most important and must be watched carefully. During peak water use months, the readings on these shallow instruments can lose 10 to 30 points in a day. Chart study will permit growers to determine the point at which this "fast break" occurs and can use this as a guide to their irrigation.

The instruments, if properly used and cared for, can be a means of saving water.

water. They confirmed the findings of our spies.

From the Hardin (Mont.) Tribune-Herald comes this apt definition:

"If you want your father to take care of you, that's paternalism. If you want your mother to take care of you, that's maternalism. If you want Uncle Sam to take care of you, that's socialism. If you want your comrades to take care of you, that's communism. But if you want to take care of yourself, that's Americanism."

George Castiel, the Luther Burbank of Lemon Grove, is not one to let a mistake in these columns go unchallenged. We needed the chamber of commerce for picturing a cherimoya on a pamphlet, then admitting, from the president down, that they didn't know what the fruit is. Says he, cherimoyas are indeed grown in Lemon Grove. Not only that, he added, he grows them at his home on San Miguel avenue, together with bananas, mangoes, and papayas. To prove his point, he brought into a luncheon gathering a branch loaded with good, old-fashioned mid-west type persimmons, which he grew in his yard. He reminded us at the same time that he had paid his service club fine last year in bananas. From now on we'll not only check the public records but we'll check with George Castiel, too on horticultural matters.

Watering Lawns Biggest Factor For Good Growth

Watering is probably the most important single factor for maintaining good lawns in southern California.

According to Seward Besemer, University of California Farm Advisor in San Diego county, good watering is getting the right amount of water to the right place at the right time.

The right place is the root zone. Most grasses will send roots into the soil to depths of two or three feet if moisture is available. The right amount of water is that which will wet your particular soil to the potential root depth. The right time for watering is when that soil moisture is depleted for plant use.

The best way to determine when enough water has been applied is to check the soil. This can be done with a metal tube, which brings up a soil sample from any depth, or a simple probe. A three-eighths inch diameter iron rod, sharpened at one end and with a cross bar handle at the top, can be used as a probe. After watering, a probe will push easily into wet soil and stop when it hits dry soil.

Soils with a high clay content absorb water slowly. If surface runoff occurs, it may be necessary to shut off the water, let it soak and then water again until desired penetration is finally achieved. The method of the slowest rate of water application is best for many local situations where the top soil is shallow and there is a dense sub-soil.

Watering one a day, particularly by hand, is not likely to apply enough water to penetrate as deep as grass roots go. Frequent shallow watering develops shallow rooted grass, wastes water and encourages fungus diseases, says Besemer.

CITRUS TREES

When California was a land of citrus groves, very particular attention was paid to the exact and proper time to spray the trees. Scale can be killed most effectively while hatching, and black scale, the greatest enemy to citrus trees, hatches in the warm weather. Constant inspection of the groves was made weekly to determine the time when the hatching or "migration" period of black scale was at its peak.

In your back-yard garden, it is almost impossible to be so completely accurate in your timing but you can definitely plan to spray your citrus trees during the summer months. Don't select a hot day when the temperature is in the 90's. Either choose a cool early morning or late afternoon and then spray thoroughly with an oil emulsion and you will afford your oranges, lemons and grapefruit the best possible protection from unsightly scale as well as spider and other enemies.

Be sure, of course, that the citrus tree are well-watered before they're sprayed.

BUSH FAMILY HAS GIRL
A 7 pound 7 1/2 ounce girl was born at Grossmont hospital July 30, to Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bush of 10071 Casa de Oro boulevard, Spring Valley. Named Susan Ann, this is the Bush's second daughter.

☆ Avoid straddling lane lines—keep in your lane, says the automobile club of Southern California.

Headed For Stardom

MUSIC MAN — A ten-year-old lowa boy, Lynn Potter, who will have the juvenile lead in "The Music Man" when it opens this month in Los Angeles, was a visitor here last week. He was visiting his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Narvaez, 10705 Garden Way, Spring Valley.

Lynn was chosen for the part by Meredith Willson, who wrote the musical when Willson was in Mason City earlier this year for a town celebration honoring him. He spied Lynn as the youngster was doing a solo number from the Willson musical and signed him up for the stage production. Lynn will have the part of Winthrop Paroo.

Come-as-you-are Party Goes In Unusual Attire

The Spring Valley women's club held its annual "Come-as-you-are" breakfast in the Spring Valley chamber of commerce hall August 1. Many of the members were in baby-dill pajamas, nightgowns, housecoats and house-dresses. The committee chairman for the affair was Mrs. Grace Harris, ways and means chairman. The members know not what day or at what time they will be called on to attend. A car just drives up to their doors and away they go.

Former Resident Joins Marines

A former Mt. Miguel student, now stationed in San Diego with the Marines, would enjoy hearing from area friends. Pte. Claude "Ed" Givens, 1689122 USMC, Pte. 255, "G" Co., R.T.N., MCHD, San Diego, was a former resident of Lemon Grove when his parents lived here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Givens now reside in Broken Arrow, Oklahoma, and recently reported to this paper their son joined the Marines June 11. Mrs. Givens said her son would especially like to hear from former classmates in the LG area.

Their former home address in Lemon Grove was 2202 Monroe street.

☆ So far this year 51,548 people have obtained international driving permits, reports the automobile club of Southern California. This is an increase of over 20,000 compared to the total at the same time last year.

Casa de Oro C of C To Meet Again This Week

The Casa de Oro chapter of commerce will hold its second dinner meeting Thursday night of this week at the Langhorst dining room. Members seem to like this informal type of meeting during the summer months, especially when so many are coming and going on vacation.

Among those vacationing last month, but home now, are: Roasie and Alka Lawrence, John Elliott, Art Schafer, Dan Swing and Dr. Fred Sherman. President "Bo" Justice will also be back in circulation following his vacation this week, but vice president Harry Dale will be gone for a month's trip with his family, and Secretary Dot Benson will be recuperating from surgery at Grossmont hospital.

SV Youth Hurt In Sweetwater- B'way Accident

George E. Ortega 19, of 3050 James Circle, Spring Valley was taken to the Grossmont hospital July 26, in the Spring Valley ambulance, after being injured in a two car accident at the corner of Sweetwater avenue and Broadway.

According to the California Highway Patrol, Ortega was a passenger in a car driven by James Riley Skagg 33, of 3052 James Circle, Spring Valley. The Skagg car was going east on Broadway.

Car number two was driven by William Henry Coppage 42, of 3585 Olive street, Lemon Grove. The report stated that Coppage was going north on Sweetwater avenue and made the boulevard stop. Coppage was watching other traffic and ran into the side of the Skagg car.

The Spring Valley ambulance made two other runs during the week; the first was to 9021 Valencia street, to take Remus Wuebben 67, to Grossmont hospital. He since passed away.

The other ambulance run (in the new one) was on July 31, at 10:25 a.m., to 9652 Kenwood drive. Mrs. Etta Popetoy was taken to county hospital.

☆ An American automobile with a custom-built body measuring 21 feet in length has been built in Italy, reports the automobile club of Southern California.

When a baby eats away from home—in places where you can't be sure of the conditions under which the milk has been kept—automobile club of Southern California travel experts caution that you should be sure the milk is boiled before giving it to the infant. On the other hand, you may want a week or so ahead of the time you travel, to begin getting the baby used to the taste of evaporated milk. This is the simplest solution for feeding the baby on the road.

teachers' association was an of $3000 to $4,500 designed to attract able youth into teaching as a career. Supt. Lewis Smith in supporting a move toward this goal said, "We are in competition with business, industry and other professions for ability. Increased status and ability are essential if the supply of well qualified professionally trained teachers is to be assured. The quality of teaching must be improved beyond present standards if education is to meet the needs of the individual and the nation in the critical period ahead." Changes in methods of financing education with less reliance on property tax were advocated by Mrs. Charles Goode and Les Freeman.

Another step toward construction of the fifth district high school was taken by the board in a resolution requesting the Board of Supervisors to sell up to $1,500,000 of bonds authorized in 1957. This plus state aid will finance construction of a school for 200 students at an estimated cost of $1,850,000.

Construction is scheduled to begin in late November with completion date set for September 1, 1959. The school will enroll initially 1200 students from Lakeside, Santee, Alpine and Highway 80 areas.

IT'S UP TO YOU

By Howard E. Kershner, L.H.D.

ACCORDING to Senator John M. Butler who cites the Department of Commerce as authority, corporate profits after taxes dropped from 9.3 per cent of the National income in 1947 to 6.1 per cent in 1956.

During the same period, Senator Butler points out, employee compensation rose from $128.6 billion to $241.4 billion. These increased labor costs absorbed 76.9 per cent of the entire increase in national income during the decade.

For every additional dollar of corporate profits after taxes employees received an additional forty dollars. Labor's share of the total national income during the period rose from 65.3 per cent in 1947 to 70.3 per cent in 1956.

About 24 per cent went to farmers, lawyers, doctors, dentists, ministers and other professional people and to the small shop keepers, leaving about 6 per cent for the savers who have supplied the capital that makes it possible for our corporations to turn out the goods that we all want.

Along Campo Road

BY LAURA BOHM

Hi-Ho. It will soon be carnival time again in Dulzura. The 4-H have their big event scheduled for August 16 and the turkey shoot for the next day.

Saturday at 2 p.m. the hawkers will begin vending their wares and booths will be open for business. There will be the odoriferous scent of batter-puppies, hamburgers, beans and hot coffee.

The turkey shoot will start at 8:30 Sunday with Ora Groves officiating.

Moneys collected at these two occasions will be used to send Suzanne Mannen, the 4-H delegate this year, to the Davis convention the last week in August.

Mrs. Vivian Roberts, 4-H leader, reports this year has been one of the most successful in 4-H work. Every entrant at the Del Mar fair brought home one or more ribbons. Their booth exhibit took second prize.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Hatfield have reached that happy state of parenthood. Their first born appeared at Grossmont hospital July 20. Son Charles Richard tipped the scales at seven pounds. Never-the-less he had to remain in the incubator for a few days before he could accustom himself to this age of sack dresses, satellites, and the demise of the three cent stamp.

Mrs. Margaret Small at Ranch Willow has gone into the nursery business for a two week duration. Her two little charges are her granddaughters, Maria and Tammy Keenan from San Diego. Their father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Keenan left July 24 by plane for New York where they will attend a world wide religious conference.

Robert Hambricht was married in El Cajon on June 28. His bride is the former Miss Sheila Henson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. P. Henson of El Cajon. Bob graduated from El Cajon high school in 1957 and now works with his father in the septic tank business. Mr. and Mrs. Horace Hambricht, the groom's parents, report the young couple are living at 328 Washington street in El Cajon. Congratulations, Bob, and we hope you two can celebrate your Golden wedding in 2008.

With table and benches and charcoal broilers. It's out back under the oaks; cooled by the stray SD breeze, and by the strut of the fanning peacock tail. All for free . . . Turner Page, chairman of the school board, announces they have signed up the new teacher for the higher grades. Mrs. Florence Lusby of El Cajon was selected . . . The Dulzura post office is now open seven hours a day. New hours 8 a.m. until noon; and from 2 p.m. until 5 p.m. The change is due to the increased gross receipts of postage sales during the fiscal year 1957.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

Your usually bright column, "The Dimmer View," was ornamented last week by that gem of a word, "Cherimoya," but I resent the ultra-light treatment in dealing with someone I love. The lack of information concerning this noble fruit is amazing and the extent of misinformation is still more so.

"Like an avocado," indeed! Well, yes. It is green and it does grow on a tree, but there the similarity ends. Surely you misunderstood Betty Hunter. Because I believe that you and all our fellow citizens should know about it. I quote from that international authority, E. L. D. Seymour, B.S.A.:

CHERIMOYA—a South American tropical tree, (Annona Cherimola), grown in warm countries, including the Florida Keys and Southern California for its heart-shaped, fragrant, acidulous, white-fleshed fruits, which range from the size of an orange to 16 lbs., and are considered almost as delicious as the mango-stem. The tree, which often reaches 20 ft., has drooping branches and oblong (sic) leaves. Its flowers, when abundant, are almost overpowering in their delightful fragrance. Not at all bad for a staid, British scientist; and a paragraph without equal in the rest of the 1348 page treatise, "The Garden Encyclopedia."

When Seymour says "Heart-shaped," he means the shape of an animals heart say an elephant's, and not the St. Valentine's kind. The soft, green color and nubby surface of the thin, velvety skin, may not seem attractive to the uninitiated, but it hides an exquisite treasure. In Chile, the cherimoya orchards are located in an area whose climate is almost identical with that of Lemon Grove, even to the light breezes from the nearby cool Pacific. There, the fruits on the market run from say 2 to 3 lbs., with some much larger, but here they seem to reach only about 12 ounces, with many smaller ones.

It is unfortunate that Lemon Grove, blessed with a climate so ideal for the purpose, does not produce this marvelous fruit. Undoubtedly, some care is required in the cultivation. For one thing, hand pollination is required, as with the date, to get best results, although some varieties, like the Chi, do fairly well by themselves. In Vista, the growers hire high school girls to perform this labor of love and find it a paying proposition. Mr. George Castiel has a beautiful tree which he does not hand-pollinate. He claims that it is not necessary and, after all, he is not overly spry. Last January he gave me two of the last few fruits, and although they were not large, they were delicious.

The Vista growers say that the harvest is in December and early January, but, Lee Nemeschek's promise of a supply in Autumn is very welcome news to this frustrated cherimoya addict. Maybe you'd like to know that the official cheer of the Boys Scouts of Chile is CHIE-CHIE CHEE REE MO YA. Quite a satisfying sound from lusty, young throats.
